

Nigel Green is currently a physical education and physical literacy consultant having been a Senior Lecturer in Physical Education at Liverpool John Moores University from 2009 - 2018. He taught physical education in four secondary schools for 29 years prior to this, during this time he led three departments, a faculty (including PE, Art, Music, Dance and Drama) and a networked community. Nigel has been involved in training teachers and providing professional development for over thirty years, in the UK and more recently in India, Brazil and Taiwan. Nigel is Chair of the International Physical Literacy Association and Vice Chair of the North Western Counties Physical Education Association. He demonstrates a commitment and passion to promote and support the development of physical education and physical literacy worldwide. He has written articles, delivered CPD, organised and presented at workshops, webinars and conferences on physical literacy, personal development through PE, ICT in PE and assessment in PE. Nigel is editor of the Research Matters section of the AfPE journal, Physical Education Matters and was External Examiner for the MA in Physical Education and School Sport at UCLAN. He is currently working with schools and organisations across the world.

Social Media links: @nigelrgreen

Photo:

